

Mrs. Nessrin Abdalla

Mrs. Nessrin Abdalla was born in Hasake, Syria and has been a long-time activist for women's rights in the Kurdish movement. She has played a major role in organizing and leading the women's movement in the Democratic Self-Administration of Rojava. In this capacity she regularly represents the DSA women's struggle for freedom to the outside world.

Contact information: sheruan_1@hotmail.com