Dear Madam Speaker,

On behalf of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe, I am pleased to forward to you the Tbilisi Declaration adopted on July 5, 2016 at the 25th Annual Session. Parliamentarians from 53 participating States attended the Annual Session and participated in thorough discussions and debates on topical OSCE-related issues. Parliamentarians focused their work on the central theme of "25 Years of Parliamentary Co-operation: Building Trust Through Dialogue."

In addition to the Tbilisi Declaration, I include herein the other resolutions adopted by the Assembly in Tbilisi, which cover topics such as "The Security Challenges of Migration," "Law Enforcement Co-ordination to Prevent Child Sexual Exploitation and Trafficking by Known Sex Offenders," and "The Rights of Refugees."

At the Annual Session in Tbilisi, the Assembly elected a new President, H. E. Ms. Christine Muttonen of Austria. Ms. Muttonen will serve as President for a term of one year.

The Assembly looks forward to receiving any comments you may have on the Declaration and Resolutions. Please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.

Yours sincerely,
